Join us for a new monthly food series, GROBucks. The first virtual session will focus on seeds. Extension staff will cover the best methods for starting seeds, transitioning them to the outdoors, and a calendar to stay on track. Then, we’ll show you how we can utilize seeds in cooking, demonstrate preparing foods, and share recipes for you to try at home.

Deadline to register is Feb 17. Register at go.osu.edu/grobucks
